

Social Awareness

FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Autism Canada's Social Awareness Training is designed to furnish businesses, including financial institutions like banks, with the essential tools and understanding needed to create a welcoming and inclusive environment for all guests and visitors. Given that financial institutions are often frequented by neurodivergent individuals, having a team equipped with the right tools to navigate crucial conversations is paramount. Such preparedness can significantly impact the lives of neurodivergent individuals in positive and meaningful ways.

Why take this training?

This 1-hour literacy program aims to enhance employees' understanding of communicating with autistic and neurodivergent individuals. Our training equips your team with strategies to create sensory-friendly environments and develop inclusive communication skills for better customer service.

Join numerous employers in embracing inclusivity within the autistic community.
